HOLLAND, MARVIN

ELSEWHERE

HOLLAND, MARVIN S., passed away December 11, 2009 from complications of prostate cancer.

Holland served in the United States Army. He graduated from Brown University and Boston University Law School. He went on to become the President of E. Rosen Company, the world's largest manufacturer of novelty candies and Chairman of the Board of ACW Industries. Mr. Holland also served as the President of the Rhode Island Jewish Federation and President of Rhode Island Israel Bonds. He served on the Board of Directors of Miriam Hospital, Temple Emanuel and Council of Jewish Federations. Holland was the Admiral of the Rhode Island Commodores and Chairman of the Howard Development Corporation. He was very active in Democratic politics nationwide and ran for the United States Senate in 1982. "Marvelous Marv" was known for his humor, intelligence and larger than life personality.

Mr. Holland was the loving husband of Roberta Holland. He is survived by his children Bruce H., Deborah, Larry, John and Bruce T., also eleven adoring grandchildren. Holland was the youngest of seven children and is survived by his loving sister Zelda Kolodney.

A memorial service was held at Temple Sinai, 73251 Hovely Lane West, Palm Desert, CA with interment that followed at Hillside Memorial Park in Los Angeles, CA. Forest Lawn Cathedral City is in charge of arrangements.