EDITH HONIG, 88, of Cedar Village Drive, Mason, Ohio, formerly of Warwick and Cranston, a former secretary, died Thursday at Jewish Hospital, Cincinnati.

She was the wife of Nathan Honig. They had been married for 61 years. Born in Philadelphia, a daughter of the late Charles and Rebecca (Katzman) Krieger, she had lived in Warwick for 17 years before moving to Mason 9 months ago. She had previously lived in Cranston for 37 years. She and her husband had wintered in Florida for 17 years.

Mrs. Honig had worked as a secretary for the treasury department for the Bureau of Purchasing and Engraving, Washington, D.C., in her younger years.

She was a founding member of both the Temple Torat Yisrael and its sisterhood in Cranston.

She was a graduate of Rogers High School, Newport, and of a business school in New York.

She was a life member of Hadassah and member of B'nai B'rith, Jewish Women's International, Rhode Island Jewish Historical Society and the former Women's Association of the Jewish Home for the Aged.

Besides her husband, she leaves a son, Dr. Richard Honig of Cincinnati; a daughter, Karen L. McKay of Houston; a sister, Shirley Collins of Long Beach, Calif.; and three grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Lillian Pomerantz.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. in Shalom Memorial Chapel, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
