Stanley Horovitz

Cranston

Horovitz, Stanley, 91, passed away on Saturday, June 21, 2025, at the HopeHealth Hulitar Hospice Center in Providence. He was the faithful and beloved husband of the late Audrey Hope (Blau) Horovitz for 62 years. Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Morris and Dena (Delerson) Horovitz.

Stanley loved life and made sure to live every moment with grace and purpose, he collected hobbies that allowed him to dive in headfirst – cooking, gardening, winemaking, travelling, reading, golf and bowling. He made sure to keep his family involved by sharing the spoils of east. He enjoyed opera, specifically Giacomo Puccini's "La bohème." Stanley was a member of many community centered groups: The Rotary Club of RI, the Aurora Club, OLLI, Tin Can Sailors, the National Postcard Association, and the US Naval Officers Candidate School.

Stanley was a talented salesman with Harwood Manufacturing; meeting new people, selling souvenirs and travelling, it was a job he loved and performed for 61 years. Stanley was a Korean Conflict Navy veteran, serving in the mediterranean onboard the USS Bache as a Lt. Junior Grade. Stanley had lived in Cranston, around the corner from Temple Sinai, for 65 years and he was a lifelong member of and volunteer with Temple Sinai, their brotherhood and various other search committees throughout the years. He was proud to serve his community during Minyan breakfast, a position he gladly held for over 50 years, and he was an usher with the Temple. His love for learning was enriched by Temple Sinai's adult education classes, he thrived in the classroom setting and made sure to inform his "daughter", friend and healthcare quarterback Dina, about all the interesting historical facts that he learned that week. He joined Temple Emanu-El in 2015 to honor his lifelong involvement in the temple where he was Bar Mitzvahed and married, he proudly attended minyan services and other miscellaneous events held there. In 2022 he celebrated his second Bar Mitzvah at the Western Wall in Jerusalem.

Devoted father of Alan Horovitz, his partner Dina, of Midvale, Utah, Cindy Wilson, her husband John, of North Kingstown, Marcy Horovitz, of Cranston and the late Steven (Christine) Horovitz. Dear brother of the late David Horovitz and his wife, Maida Horovitz. Loving grandfather of 7: Alexandra (Jay), David (Emily), Edward (Alex), Sam, Jack (Lily), Kyle, Kate (Ben). Cherished great grandfather of 9: Emily, Maggie, Hadley, Chase, Audrey, Benjamin, Max, Madison, and Maeve.

Funeral services will be held on Wednesday, June 25 at 10:00 a.m. at Temple Sinai, 30 Hagen Avenue, Cranston, RI 02920. Shiva will be observed at his late residence on Wednesday, 2:00-4:00 p.m. and 6:00 – 9:00 p.m. and Thursday, 2:00 – 4:00 p.m. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to Temple Sinai's Minyan Breakfast fund or the Rabbi Discretionary Fund, 30 Hagen Avenue, Cranston, RI 02920. For online condolences, please visit ShalomMemorialChapel.com.

Memory Listen Share Plant a tree Send flowers

Posted online on June 24, 2025
Published in Providence Journal

Need to place an obituary?

We're here to help.

For loved ones | Funeral directors

Advice and guidance

Step-by-step guide to planning a funeral

Coping with grief when a traditional funeral isn't possible

How to write an obituary

Help | Accessibility | Sitemap | Terms of Service | Subscription Terms & Conditions | Privacy Policy | California Notice at Collection | Our Ethical Principles | Responsible Disclosure | Your Privacy Choices

© 2025 providencejournal.com. All rights reserved.