2-7-1941

HORVITZ, Samuel

SAMUEL HORVITZ

Funeral services were held last Sunday for Samuel Horvitz, 65, of 79 Waltham street, Pawtucket, who died on Saturday at his home following an illness of six months.

Born in Russia, Mr. Horvitz had lived in Pawtucket for almost forty years. He was active in the Ohawe·Sholom Synagogue of Pawtucket, the Gemilath Chesed of Pawtucket, and the Jewish Home for Aged of Rhode Island.

Surviving him are four sons, Abraham, Louis and David of Pawtucket, Leo of Houston, Texas, one daughter, Mrs. Samuel Nalibow of this city; six brothers and two sisters, all of Fall River.

Rabbi Aaron Golden officiated at services, and interment was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.