BERNARD J. IBA

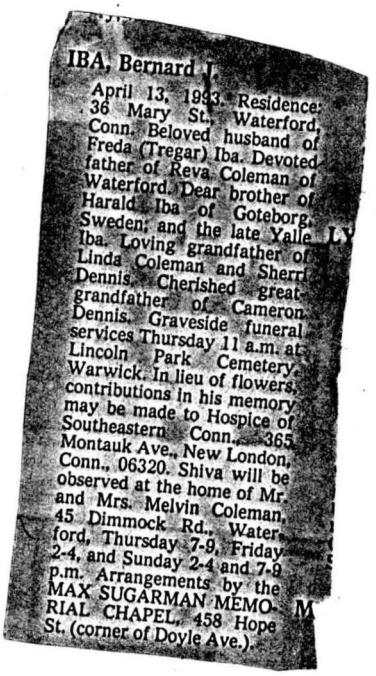

WATERFORD, Conn. — Bernard J. Iba, 85, of 36 Mary St., a clothing salesman for the former Anderson-Little Co. for many years before retiring in 1989, died April 13 at Lawrence and Memorial Hospitals, New London. He was the husband of Freda (Tregar) Iba.

Born in Stockholm, Sweden, a son of the late Isaac and Fannie (Bleiman) Iba, he lived in Woonsocket and West Medford, Mass., before moving to the Waterford-New London area 25 years ago.

Iba was owner of the former Bernard's Baby Shoppe, Woonsocket for nine years, and the former Guaranteed Upholstery Co., Cranston. He was a member of the Touro Fraternal Association, Cranston, the Elks, Woonsocket and the Vasa Lodge, New London.

Besides his wife he leaves a daughter, Reva Coleman of Waterford; a brother, Harald Iba of Goteborg, Sweden; two granddaughters, and a great-grandson. He was brother of the late Yalle Iba.

A graveside service was held April 15 at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. Arrangements were made by the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence.
