Providence

DEBORAH N. ISAACSON, 62, of Lewiston, Maine, died yesterday at the Central Maine Medical Center. She was the wife of Philip M. Isaacson.

Born in Providence, she was a daughter of Lila Fain Rosen of Providence, and the late Lee Rosen.

Mrs. Isaacson was a 1954 graduate of Bates College, and she also attended Wellesley College. She taught mathematics at Lewiston High School and St. Peter's School, and operated a book store in Lewiston. She also was a sales representative for giftware manufacturers in Maine and New Hampshire. She was a supporter of the NAACP and the Maine Civil Liberties Union.

Besides her husband and mother she leaves a daughter, Elizabeth A. Isaacson of Providence; two sons, Thomas A. Isaacson of Washington, D.C., and John A. Isaacson of Cumberland, Maine; a sister, Phyllis B. Cardozo of San Francisco, Calif., and three grandchildren.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. at Temple Shalom, Auburn, Maine. Burial will be in Beth Jacob Cemetery, Auburn.
