JACOBS, CHARLOTTE

Journal | providencejournal.

CRANSTON

JACOBS, CHARLOTTE SYBIL (BANDER) 83, of Boca Raton, Florida passed away April 2, 2013. She was the beloved wife of Albert Jordan Jacobs for 60 years.

Charlotte was born on May 25, 1929 in Providence, R.I., a daughter of the late Cyrus and Sadie (Berkowitz) Bander. She lived with her husband in Boca Raton, Florida for the past 14 years, having previously raised their family in Cranston, Rhode Island.

Charlotte graduated from Hope High School in 1946. She attended the University of Rhode Island, after sitting shiva for her mother for one year. Charlotte was devoted to her family and often said that all of her children were "the light of her life." She encouraged all of their childhood activities and chauffeured her children to a myriad of lessons, sports and activities.

She was a Cub-Scout den mother for many years, and active in the Parent-Teacher Association at her children's schools

After her children left for college, Charlotte became a licensed real estate agent. She later thrived as a successful entrepreneur and owner of The Jewelry Depot, developing her own line of jewelry that was popular on college campuses.

Charlotte got great joy from all of her grandchildren and her great grandchild. She also treasured her wonderful network of women friends who were her extended family. She will be remembered for the selfless love she showered