JACOBS, DR. HARRY

Dr. H. Jacobs of Harrisville dies at age of 70

BURRILLVILLE — Dr. Harry Jacobs, 70, of 1 Cherry Farm Rd., Harrisville, died unexpectedly at home yesterday. He was the husband of Etta (Mowry) Jacobs.

He was a physician in the Pascoag area for 30 years, and moved his office to Chepachet two years ago. He was a captain in the Army Medical Corps and served five years in the Pacific theater during World War II.

He was a charter member and former director of the Burrillville Lions Club, president of the Granite Association of Granite Lodge of Masons in Harrisville, a member of the Keegan-Dinagen VFW Post, Pascoag, and a member of the Tufts College Alumni Association, the American Medical Association and the Rhode Island Medical Society.

He was born in Concord, Mass., Dec. 26, 1906, a son of the late Samuel and Celia (Barg) Jacobs, and lived in the Burrillville area for 32 years.

Survivors besides his wife are two stepdaughters, Mrs. Jean Place of San Jose, Calif., and Mrs. Mary Petrides of Medway, Mass.; three sisters, Mrs. Ida Israel of Woonsocket, Mrs. Sadie Sherman of Harwich, Mass., and Mrs. Dorothy Platt of Danville, Va., and two stepgrandchildren.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. at B'nai Israel Synagogue, Prospect Street, Woonsocket. Burial will be in B'nai Israel Cemetery.
