Joseph Jacobson; former banker, Mason

PAWTUCKET — Joseph Jacobson, 90, of 112 Sayles Ave., vice president of the former Industrial Trust Bank, now Fleet Bank, for 40 years before retiring, died yesterday at Memorial Hospital. He was the husband of the late Etta (Seltzer) Jacobson.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Maurice and Bessie (Hyatt) Jacobson, he lived in Pawtucket for 38 years.

Mr. Jacobson was well-known in the banking field and was known nationally as the "Father of Installment Credit." He was a member of Temple Emanu-El, B'nai B'rith, the Hope Link of the Order of the Golden Chain, Nestell Lodge 37, AF & AM, and the Crestwoood Country Club. He served as treasurer of the Jewish Committee on Boy Scouting, and received the Ner Tamid Award. He was a member of the Providence Fraternal Association. He was a member of the American Bankers Association and the Rhode Island Association of Credit Men. He graduated from the Rutgers University Graduate School of Banking.

He leaves a son, Marvin Jacobson of Cranston; a brother, Nathan Jacobson of Providence, and two grandchildren.

The funeral will be held today at noon at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery in Warwick.
