SIDNEY "SONNY" JAFFA, 83, of 3601 Lakewood Blvd., Naples, Fla., the founder of the former Payton Home Equipment Co. of Providence, died Sunday at Manor Care Health Services in Naples. He was the husband of Ruth (Saltzman) Jaffa and the late Evelyn (Levin) Jaffa.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Harry and Rose (Cohen) Jaffa, he lived in Providence, Cranston and West Warwick, before moving to Florida in 1990.

Mr. Jaffa attended Northeastern University and worked as an accountant for several years before founding and operating the Payton company. He later worked as a salesman for the former P.H. Ross Co. on North Main Street in Providence for more than 20 years, retiring in 1990.

He was a member of Temple Sinai in Cranston and its Brotherhood, where he served as co-chairman of the ritual committee and the Saturday minyan breakfast. He was a member of the Touro Fraternal Association and an associate member of Hadassah. He was a member of Temple Shalom in Naples and its men's club.

Besides his wife, he leaves a daughter, Arlene Geremia of Naples; a son, Michael Jaffa of Warwick; two stepdaughters, Nancy Olevson and Sara Marino, both of Exeter; three grandchildren, and one great-grandchild. He was the brother of the late Nonette Jainchill.

His funeral will be held Friday at 11 a.m. in Temple Sinai, 30 Hagan Ave., Cranston. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Road, Warwick.
