JAFFE,
David

PROV. JEW. HER. 2-3-1956

DAVID JAFFE

Funeral services for David Jaffe, 71, former Providence resident for nearly 50 years, who died in Washington, D. C., last Saturday, were held Sunday at the Bernard Danzanski Funeral Home. Burial was in King David Memorial Garden, Falls Church, Va.

Born in Russia, Jan. 15, 1885, son of the late Harry and Hannah Jaffe, he operated a Providence sheet metal and roofing business and a Trinity Square package store until his retirement in 1949. He moved here a year later.

Mr. Jaffe leaves his widow, Mrs. Ette (Cipkin) Jaffe; two sons, Theodore Jaffe of Providence and Washington and Ernest Jaffe of Silver Spring, Md.; two daughters, Mrs. Rose M. Lewis of Pawtucket and Emily Jaffe, a secretary in the office of Rep. Aime J. Forand (D-RI); two brothers, Benjamin Jaffe of Los Angeles, Calif., and Samuel Jaffe of Johannesburg, South Africa; a sister, Sonia Jaffe of Russia, and five grandchildren.
