Harold A. Jagolinzer 93, of Middletown, Rhode Island passed away peacefully on March 11.

Born in Providence on November 8, 1921, he was the son of late Abraham and Anna (Gershman) Jagolinzer.

He was a World War II veteran serving in the United States Army. He was awarded a Purple Heart.

An avid reader, he enjoyed keeping up with national and international news, watching sports, spending summers on his boat, the Four J's and traveling to various destinations throughout the United States and Europe.

Harold had a full and a wonderful life, thanks in large measure to the love and devotion of his wife, Hinda (Tesler) Jagolinzer. For 69 years this couple shared life and love as husband and wife and best friends. Nothing was too difficult when it came to the welfare and well being of one another.

And this couple's union was enhanced by the love and devotion of their wonderful children, Rabbi Marc S. Jagolinzer and his wife Barbara and Robert S. Jagolinzer. And their great joy and pride was deepened by their adoring grandchildren Charles Jagolinzer and his wife Rachelle, Sarah and her husband Andrew Kabat and Jonathan and his wife Jennifer Jagolinzer. Max Ethan, Sam Henry and Julia Rose, their great grandchildren were the light of Harold's life and the length of his days.
