Harry D. Jagolinzer

Harry D. Jagolinzer, 81, of 45 Blackstone Blvd., died today at The Miriam Hospital shortly after being admitted. The husband of Minnie (Pritzker) Jagolinzer, he was the president of the Spencer Roofing and Home Services, Inc..

Mr. Jagolinzer was known for the portraits of famous people and events he created out of stamps. A picture he did of Pope Piux XII hangs in the library at Regis College in Weston, Mass.

Some of his works were exhibited in 1963 at the Old Slater Mill Museum in Pawtucket. Mr. Jagolinzer, who was also a stamp collectpr, said that in the late 1950s he grew tired of watching television, and so turned to what became a major hobby.

Mr. Jagolinzer was born in Buenos Aires, Argentina, a son of the late Philip and Kayla (Fishman) Jagolinzer, came to this country at the age of six and had been a Providence resident since that time.

A 32nd degree Mason, he was past master of Roosevelt Lodge of Masons and served as chaplain of that lodge in 1942. He was a member and past president of the Providence Fraternal Association, the Rhode Island Jewish Association, and the Providence Zionist District of ZOA. He was a member of the Hebrew Free Loan Association, and the Jewish Home for the Aged.

In 1940, he was appointed to Draft Board No. 9 by the then Gov. William Vanderbilt. In 1943, he was cited with his efforts in the War Bond program.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a son, Norman Jagolinzer of Barrington; two daughters, Mrs. Ruth Biller and Mrs. Edith Schiff, both of Pawtucket; three brothers, Joseph Jagolinzer and Carl Jagolinzer, both of Providence, and Charles Jagolinzer of Phoenix, Ariz., two sisters, Mrs. Blanche Backerman of Pawtucket, and Mrs. Fae Woolf of Cranston; and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at Temple Beth-El, 70 Orchard Ave., tomorrow at 2 p.m. Burial will be in Lincoln [illegible] Cemetery, Warwick.
