Lilyan Jagolinzer

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. — Lilyan Jagolinzer, 86, of North Miller Road died Nov. 1 in Scottsdale. She was the widow of Charles Jagolinzer, a former optometrist in Pawtucket.

Born in New York, a daughter of the late Samuel and Anna Lipson, she lived in Providence, Pawtucket, Cumberland and Cranston before moving to Arizonia in 1968.

Mrs. Jagolinzer was a pianist at the former Albee Theatre, Providence, during the days of silent films. She was president of the East Avenue PTA, vice president of the Pawtucket Haddassah, and a volunteer captain in the American Cancer Society.

She leaves three sons, Kenneth Jagolinzer of Phoenix, Philip Jagolinzer of Saco, Maine, and Burt Jagolinzer of Framingham, Mass.; two sisters, Rose Goldberg of Providence and Frances Rutman of Manchester, N.H.; a brother, Arthur Lipson of Warwick; eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. She was sister of the late Reuben, Maurice, Irving, George, and William Lipson.

A memorial service will be held Nov. 17 at 1 p.m. at Temple Beth-El, Orchard Avenue, Providence.
