MORRIS JAGOLINZER

Funeral services for Morris Jagolinzer, 74, of Tourtellot Hill Road, Glocester, who died unexpectedly in Miami, Fla., Feb. 13, were held Feb. 15 at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

He and his wife, Mrs. Ann (Greenberg) Jagolinzer, were vacationing in Miami Beach.

Mr. Jagolinzer had been employed as a maintenance man by United Camera, Inc., before retiring. Until moving to Glocester in 1946, he had been a Providence resident for 40 years. He was born Aug. 20, 1888, in Russia, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Max Jagolinzer.

Mr. Jagolinzer was a member of Touro Fraternal Association and Congregation Sons of Abraham.

In addition to his widow, he leaves three daughters, Mrs. David Kotlen of Glocester, Mrs. Aaron Davis, and Mrs. Walter Schwartz, both of Cranston; two brothers, Abraham and Benjamin Jagolinzer, and two sisters, Mrs. Jacob Greenberg and Mrs. Betty Curran, both of Providence; and three grandchildren.
