Joslin, Dorothy H. (Mrs Philip)

Mrs. Dorothy Joslin

Mrs. Joslin Dies, Wife, Mother Of R.I. Judges

Mrs. Dorothy (Aisenberg) Joslin, widow of Philip C. Joslin, former associate justice of the state Superior Court, and mother of Alfred H. Joslin, associate justice of the state Supreme Court, died this morning at her home, 395 Angell St. She was 77 years old.

Mrs. Joslin was long active in community and religious affairs. With her late husband, she was a founder of Temple Emanu-El in Providence, served on its board of trustees for nearly half a century and was an honorary president of its Sisterhood.

She had served as a director of the Rhode Island School for the Deaf, as vice president of Hadassah, as a member of the board of trustees of Miriam Hospital and was active in the American Red Cross in World War II.

Mrs. Joslin was born in Worcester Feb. 10, 1894, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Aisenberg. She married the late Judge Joslin March 18, 1913.

Besides Judge Alfred Joslin she leaves a second son, Robert L. Joslin of Scarsdale, N.Y.; a daughter, Mrs. James A. Sallinger of Cincinnati, and seven grandchildren.

The funeral will be held Wednesday at noon in Temple Emanu-El, 295 Morris Ave.
