ROBERT L. JOSLIN, 83, of Portland, Ore., formerly of Providence, an industrialist, died Tuesday at Rose Schnitzer Manor, Portland.

Born in Providence, he was the son of the late Philip C. and Dorothy (Aisenberg) Joslin. He had lived in Providence, Larchmont, N.Y., and Boca Raton, Fla., before moving to Portland.

Mr. Joslin was the founder and president of the Stephens Paint Co., and Insl-X Products, Yonkers, N.Y.

He was a magna cum laude graduate of Brown University, where he was a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Society.

He leaves two sons, Jeff Joslin of Portland, and Richard Joslin of Delray Beach, Fla.; a sister, Joyce Salinger of Cincinnati; and a granddaughter.

The funeral and burial were private.
