Samuel Kadsivitz-Kay

WARWICK — Samuel Kadsivitz-Kay, 65, of 1445 Warwick Ave., founder of Keystone Distributors in Providence and president of the company for 20 yeares before retiring 10 years ago, died today at Miriam Hospital.

Born in Lithuania, a son of the late Charles & Sarah (Aronovich) Kadsivitz, he had lived in Warwick 30 years. He previously lived in Providence 20 years.

Mr. Kay was an Army veteran of World War II and a member of the Disabled American War Veterans Association. He was a former member of the board of directors of the Mayflower Bank.

He is survived by four sisters, Molly Granoff and Sylvia Greenfeld, both of Cranston, Rose Sagan of Barrington and Betty Plotnick of Rockville, Md.; three brothers, Robert Kay of New York City, Harry Kay of Orange, Conn., and Nathan Kay of Encino, Calif., 14 nieces and nephews and four great-nieces and great-nephews.

His funeral service will be at 11 a.m. Thursday in Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

KAY, SAMUEL

8-2587

EB