KANOPKIN, William

WILLIAM KANOPKIN, 89, of 41 Pinehurst Ave., a supervisor with the U.S. Postal Service for over 40 years until his retirement, died Thursday at Philip Hulitar Hospice Center.

He was the husband of the late Betty (Kaplan) Kanopkin. Born in Providence, a son of the late David and Dora (Spiegal) Kanopkin, he had been a lifelong resident of the city.

He was a part-time photographer and an amateur artist.

He was a member of Temple Am David and its Men's Club, and assisted with the daily and Sabbath services.

Mr. Kanopkin was a member of the Retired Postal Service Employees Association. He was a graduate of Hope High School.

He leaves a daughter, Pam Kanopkin, and a sister, Bella Harriet, both of Providence, and two brothers, Benjamin Kanopkin of Chepachet and Louis Kanopkin of Pawtucket. He was the brother of the late Rose Dwares.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at 9:45 a.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
