HARRY KAPLAN

Funeral services for Harry Kaplan, 79, of 203 Cross Street, Central Falls, who died Tuesday after an illness of a week, were held the following day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

The husband of Paula (Shaprio) Kaplan, he was born March 1889 in Russia, son of the late Samuel and Sarah Kaplan. His first wife, Annie (Wax) Kaplan, died in 1955. He had been a resident of Central Falls for 60 years. He was a self-employed scrap metal dealer until he retired 14 years ago.

Mr. Kaplan was a member of Congregation Ohawe Sholom of Pawtucket, and the Providence Beneficial Association.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two sons, Samuel Kaplan of Swampscott, Mass., and Sol Kaplan of Cranston; two daughters, Mrs. Louis Kanopkin of Pawtucket, and Mrs. William Kanopkin of Providence, and eight grandchildren.

KAPLAN, HARRY