Ida S. Kaplan

WARWICK — Ida S. Kaplan, 87, of 1 Shalom Drive died yesterday at Rhode Island Hospital. She was the widow of James Kaplan.

Born in Lithuania, she was a daughter of the late John M. and Sophie Levine. She had been a Warwick resident the last seven years. Previously she had lived in Pawtucket for 10 years and in Providence for more than 67 years.

Mrs. Kaplan attended a local business college. She was a volunteer worker for many charitable organizations and past president of the Providence Chapter of the Jewish Consumptive Relief Society, Denver, Colo.; past president of the Mothers Association of the former Temple Beth David, past president of Mizrachi Women, the Shalom Tenants Association, the Women's Association of Miriam Hospital and a life member of the Women's Associatiaon of the Jewish Home for the Aged.

She leaves a daughter, Ruth Bertman of Cranston; a son, Dr. Irwin Kaplan of Warwick; a brother, Henry Levine of Hollywood, Fla., five grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

The funeral service will be tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

KAPLAN; IDA S.