Cranston

MORRIS KAPLAN, 84, of Holland Street, a retired business manager, died Sunday at Our Lady of Fatima Hospital, North Providence.

He was the husband of Mary (Bevilacqua) Kaplan. They had been married for 18 years. Born in New York City, the son of the late Barney and Lena Kaplan, he had lived in Brooklyn, for most of his life. He moved to Cranston 18 years ago.

Mr. Kaplan had been a business manager of Local 49 Service Employees International Union for 40 years, until retiring 15 years ago. He was a past international vice president of the Jewelry Workers' Union.

He was a member of the Cranston Senior Adult Day Center.

He loved reading, sports and the arts, and was a sculptor.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Edward Kaplan of Morris Plain, N.J., and Bruce Kaplan of Edison, N.J.; a stepson, Gary Finelli of Wassaic, N.Y.; a daughter, Barbara Goldstein of New York City; two sisters, Helen Carlton of Boynton Beach, Fla., and Gloria Feldman of Hollywood, Calif.; eight grandchildren; and a great-granddaughter. He was the brother of the late Mary Bernstein.

The funeral service will be held today at 5 p.m. in Shalom Memorial Chapel, 1100 New London Ave.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. in Beth David Memorial Park, Kenilworth, N.J.
