10-17-85

THE PROVIDENCE JOURNAL

OBITUARIES

Myer Kaplan

KAPLAN, MYER

HYANNIS, Mass. — Myer Kaplan, 88, of 351 Castlewood Circle, formerly of Providence, died yesterday at home. He was the husband of the late Fannie (Ostrow) Kaplan.

He had been proprietor of a Providence parking lot for 20 years before he retired. He also had worked for the Providence School Department.

Born in Boston, he was a son of the late Jacob and Elizabeth Kaplan. He had lived in Providence for more than 55 years before moving to Hyannis seven years ago.

He was a Navy veteran of World War I.

He leaves two daughters, Dorothy Berstein of Providence and Estelle Rakatansky, with whom he lived; a sister, Anne Pike of Bethesda, Md.; four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held today at 2 p.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.