KAPLAN,
Sylvia

RI Herald 1-15-65

MISS SYLVIA KAPLAN

Funeral services for Miss Sylvia Kaplan, 50, of 76 Davis Street, who died Tuesday after an illness of one week, were held the following day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

Born in Providence on Feb. 8, 1914, a daughter of the late Abraham and Jennie (Kaplan) Kaplan, she was a lifelong resident of Providence. She was employed as a floor lady at the Lincoln Lace and Braid Company for 35 years.

She is survived by two brothers, Nathan and Robert Kaplan, both of Providence, and one sister, Mrs. Carl Rodinsky of Providence.