FB 10/15/84

Frederick T. Kapsinow

PROVIDENCE — Frederick T. Kapsinow, 59, of 258 Waterman St., died Friday in Englewood, Fla. after a brief illness. He was the husband of Miriam (Tower) Kapsinow.

Mr. Kapsinow was employed as a nurse at Rhode Island Hospital for 10 years. Before becoming a nurse he was employed as an engineer at Victor Electric for 20 years.

He was a member of the Audubon Society of R.I. and the Sierra Club and Greenpeace. He was a Boy Scout leader and a member of Varnum Armory and the National Association of Underwriters Laboratories.

He was born in New Haven, Conn., a son of the late David and Henrietta (Fine) Kapsinow. He was a Warwick resident for 23 years before moving to Providence.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, Jay Kapsinow of East Hawley, Mass.; three daughters, S. Dawn Jabari of Boston, Lynette Kapsinow of Providence, and Lynda Kapsinow of Los Angeles, Calif.; and a brother, Alan Kapsinow of Fountain Valley, Calif.

The private funeral service was held in Providence.

KAPSINOW, FREDERICK T.