ESTA H. KATZ, 81, of 75 East St., a former saleslady, died yesterday in Tockwotton Home.

She was the wife of the late Samuel Katz. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Jacob and Dora (Alpert) Kushner, she was a lifelong resident of the city.

Mrs. Katz had been in retail sales at the former City Hall Hardware Store until its closing.

She was a graduate of Central High School, and a former member of Sons of Abraham Synagogue, and the Women's Army Corps, serving in Paris, France.

Mrs. Katz was a member of the American Kennel Club, and had participated in many local dog shows.

She was an avid reader.

She leaves several nieces and nephews.

A graveside funeral service will be held tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
