KATZ, Eve

PJ 7 (13-2000

EVE (COHEN) KATZ, 87, of East Street, a former gift shop owner and pastry chef, died yesterday at Tockwotton Home.

She was the wife of the late George Katz. Born in Boston, a daughter of the late Jacob and the late Mindel Cohen, she resided in Ventnor, N.J., from 1963 to 1977, but lived most of her life in Rhode Island.

She was the former owner of LaPallette Gift Shop in Providence, and was the pastry chef at the former Amara's restaurant in Providence.

She was a member of Temple Beth-El and its Sisterhood. She was honored by Big Brothers of Rhode Island for her work with her husband during his many years of work with the organization.

She leaves two sons, Steve Kass of Providence and John Katz of Montclair, N.J.; a daughter, Jane Richter of Malden, Mass.; two sisters, Ann Schwartz of Providence and Bess Platt of Cranston; and six grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 9 a.m. in Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 82 Hope St. (at Fourth Street). Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
