Obituary

HARRY KATZ

Funeral services for Harry Katz, 72, of 123 Woodbine Street, president of the Katz Jewelry Company, who died Jan. 29 after a short illness, were held the following day at Temple Emanuel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

Husband of the late Mollie (Sales) Katz, he was born in Austria in 1886, a son of the late Elias and Rachel Katz. He came to this city as a young man and had resided here most of his life.

Mr. Katz was a member of the Temple Emanuel board of trustees, the school board of Temple Emanuel, and the Men's Club of the temple. He also belonged to B'nai B'rith, the Jewish Home for the Aged, Congregation Sons of Zion, the Zionist Organization of America, the Jewish Theological Seminary, the What Cheer Lodge, Providence Hebrew Day School, and was a member of the board of directors of the Hebrew Free Loan Association.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Harry I. Goldman and Mrs. Sidney W. Factor; a brother, Isadore Katz, all of Providence, and six grandchildren.
