NATHAN KATZ, 83, of 46 Woodbury St., a special agent for the U.S. Treasury Department in Providence for many years before retiring in 1974, died yesterday at home. He was the husband of Teddy Grant-Katz, and the husband of the late Lee (Stepik) Katz.

A lifelong resident of Providence, he was a son of the late Abraham and Anna (Peretz) Katz.

Mr. Katz was an Army veteran of World War II, and served as an officer in Japan. He was a 1940 graduate of Bryant College. He was a member of Temple Emanu-el. For many years he was a volunteer at McAuley House, St. Anthony House and Holy Name Church.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Donald Katz of Nashua, N.H., and Richard Katz of East Lyme, Conn.; and a grandson. He was the father of the late Jerald Katz, and brother of the late Gertrude Shone, Beatrice Kwasha and Mary Jewett.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. (corner of Doyle Avenue). Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery in Warwick.
