EUGENE I. KATZEN, 75; of Greenwich Avenue, a retired pressroom foreman, died Friday at Philip Hulitar Hospice Center, Providence.

He was the husband of the late Frances (Manheimer) Katzen. Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., a son of the late Samuel and Jane (Rosengarten) Katzen, he had lived in Warwick for 22 years, previously living in Bristol.

He was a foreman at the former Providence Gravure for 25 years before retiring.

He was a Navy veteran of World War II, serving as a gunner's mate third class.

Mr. Katzen was a volunteer for the Better Business Bureau, past president of the Providence Pressman's Union, a member of the board of directors of the AFL/CIO, a volunteer at Butler Hospital, and a plank owner of the USS Compton.

He was a graduate of Lincoln High School, Brooklyn.

He leaves three sons, Jonathan Katzen of Rumford, Judd Katzen of Berwyn, Pa., and Daniel Jacobs of New Port Richey, Fla.; two daughters, Jill Massa of Warren and Jane Monteiro of Jupiter, Fla.; 11 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren; and his companion, Goldie Greene of Warwick. He was the brother of the late Murray A. Katzen.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. in Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Rhode Island Veterans Cemetery, Exeter.
