Morris Katznelson

PROVIDENCE — Morris "Lefty" Katznelson, 80, of the Jewish Home for the Aged for the past 4 months, a driver for Yellow Cab Company for more than 30 years before retiring 15 years ago, died Friday in Miriam Hospital.

Born in Providence, he was the son of the late Joseph and Fannie (Ginsberg) Katznelson. He had lived in Providence most of his life except for 13 years in Pawtucket, before moving to the Jewish Home for the Aged.

Mr. Katznelson was a member of Congregation Sons of Jacob.

He leaves two sisters, Ida Falk of Cranston and Hattie Feinstein of Houston, Tex.; four brothers, Irving and Samuel Nelson, both of Providence, Louis Katznelson of Narragansett and Dr. Walter K. Nelson of Metuchen, N.J.

A graveside funeral service was held yesterday in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Road, Warwick.
