East Greenwich

HARVEY ALTON KAYE, 82, of 2778 South Ocean Blvd., Palm Beach, Fla., formerly of East Greenwich, a retired owner of men's clothing stores, died Thursday at home.

He was the husband of Mildred (Palow) Kaye. They had been married for 59 years. Born in Providence, a son of the late Frank and Bess (Ostrow) Konovsky, he had lived in East Greenwich and Providence before moving to Palm Beach in 1985.

Mr. Kaye was the founder of the first prep shop in Rhode Island for young men, and the owner of the former Gentry Shop, and Prep and Squire Shop, both in Warwick, and The Prep Shop and Paramount the Man Shop, both in Providence.

He was a Navy veteran of World War II, serving as an ensign in Europe in battles at Anzio and Normandy, and earned several citations.

He was a graduate of Ohio State University, and performed graduate work at Northwestern University, Chicago.

Mr. Kaye was a member of the Masons, and a former member of Temple Beth-El and the Touro Fraternal Association.

A golf enthusiast, he was a member of Crestwood and Ledgemont country clubs.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Dr. William Kaye of Palm Beach and Steven Kaye of East Greenwich; two grandchildren, Maximillian and Andrea Kaye; and a sister, Terry Kaufman.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 12:30 p.m. in Shalom Memorial Chapel, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. Burial will be in Sons of Israel & David Cemetery, Providence.
