Obituary

DAVID KELMAN

Funeral services for David Kelman, 78, of 75 Glenham Street, a retired contractor, who died on April 9 after a long illness, were held on the following day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

The husband of Goldie (Kaplan) Kelman, he was born in Russia in 1882. He was a son of the late Boruch and Jennie Kelman and had been a resident of Providence for about 50 years.

He was a member of the Congregation Sons of Abraham, Rhode Island Workmen's Circle, Providence Fraternal Association, South Providence Hebrew Free Loan, Jewish Home for the Aged and the Zionist Organization of America.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by two sons, Fred Kelman of Providence and Jack Kelman of New York City; a daughter, Mrs. Charles Potter of Providence; two brothers, Abraham and Samuel Kelman both of Providence; a sister, Mrs. Peretz Fine of Miami, Fla., and seven grandchildren.

1960

David Kelman

David Kelman, 82, of 75 Glenham St., a retired contractor, died yesterday afternoon in Rhode Island Hospital after a long illness. He was the husband of Goldie (Kaplan) Kelman.

Born in Russia, Feb. 15, 1878, a son of the late Boruch and Jennie Kelman, he had been a resident of Providence for about 50 years.

He was a member of the Congregation Sons of Abraham, Rhode Island Workmen's Circle, Providence Fraternal Association, South Providence Hebrew Free Loan, Jewish Home for the Aged and the Zionists Organization of America.

In addition ot his wife, he is survived by two sons, Fred Kelman of Providence and Jack Kelman of New York City; a daughter, Mrs. Charles Potter of Providence; two brothers, Abraham and Samuel Kelman, both of Providence; a sister, Mrs. Peretz Fine of Miami, Fla., and seven grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.