Milton Kelman

PROVIDENCE — Milton Kelman, 78, of 12 Poplar St., a bread salesman for the New England Bakery for 35 years before retiring in 1970, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Fay (Chase) Kelman.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Barnet and Ida (Weitstein) Kelman.

Mr. Kelman was a member of Temple Emanu-El, the United Commercial Travelers and the Teamsters Union.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Burton E. Kelman of Pawtucket and Barry C. Kelman of Providence; two daughters, Marilyn K. Asher of Van Nuys, Calif., and Cindy Granieri of North Hollywood, Calif., and three grandchildren.

The funeral service was to be held today at 10:30 a.m. at Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial was to be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

Kelman, Milton