ANNE KEMPNER, 85, of Wildflowers Health Care by the Water, 735 Putnam Pike, Greenville, a retired manager, died yesterday at Wildflowers.

She had been the wife of the late Julius Kempner, the late Abraham Tatelbaum, and the late Irving Gershman. Born in Providence, the daughter of the late Daniel and Edith (Katzura) Chorney, she had lived in Miami, Fla., for more than 30 years before moving back to Rhode Island three years ago. She previously had lived in Brockton, Mass., and the Dorchester section of Boston.

Mrs. Kempner had been a manager in the ladies' clothing department of the former Kennedy's Department Store, in Brockton and Braintree, Mass., for 9 years before retiring 30 years ago.

She had been a member of the Agudas Achim Synagogue, in Brockton, and Temple Torat Yisrael, in Cranston.

She leaves two sons, Harvey Gershman of Waltham, Mass., and Joel Tatelbaum of West Lawn, Pa.; a brother, Ernest Chorney of Cranston; two grandsons; and a great-granddaughter. She was the mother of the late Edward Gershman, and the sister of the late Abraham, Samuel and Sidney Chorney.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. in Shalom Memorial Chapel, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston.
