Kenner, Harold

The Evening Bulletin May 12, 1969

5/12/69

Harold Kenner

Wire Textile Firm Head Dies on Bahamas Visit

Harold Kenner, 53, of 271 Taber Ave., president of the Wire & Textile Machinery Co. in Pawtucket, one of the largest in its field, died Thursday in the Bahamas while on vacation. He was the husband of Roselyn (Slovin) Kenner.

A son of Mrs. Lena (Kenner) Kenner of Providence and the late Jacob I. Kenner, he was a lifelong Providence resident. Mr. Kenner, an Army veteran of World War II, was a member of Temple Beth-El. He was a graduate of East Greenwich Academy.

He was also a member of the Jewish Home for the Aged, the Jewish Community Center, the Ledgemont Country Club and the Wire Association.

Surviving, besides his wife and mother, are four sons, Harold Kenner Jr., Martin, Brian and Alan Kenner, all at home, and two brothers, Paul I. of San Francisco and Frederick Kenner of Providence.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 4:30 p.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery in Warwick.

Kenner, Harold