ROSELYN (SLOVIN) KENNER, 83, of Butler Avenue, a homemaker and a registered nurse, died Sunday at Oak Hill Nursing & Rehabilitation Center, Pawtucket.

She was the wife of the late Harold Kenner. They had been married for 24 years. Born in Worcester, Mass., a daughter of the late Abraham and Etta (Brodsky) Slovin, she had lived in Providence for most of her life.

Mrs. Kenner was a graduate of the nursing school at Rhode Island Hospital, where she had worked as a registered nurse for several years.

She was a member and board member of the Miriam Hospital Women's Association, and a volunteer at Miriam Hospital; a life member of the former Jewish Home for Aged; and a big supporter of the Rochambeau Library, the All Children's Theatre Ensemble and the Jewish Community Center of Rhode Island.

Mrs. Kenner was a former member of Temple Beth-El and Hadassah.

She was a card player, reader, walker, golfer, and former member of Ledgemont Country Club.

She leaves four sons, Martin A. Kenner of Cranston, Jacob "Buddy" and Brian P. Kenner, both of Providence, and Alan R. Kenner of Cranston; seven grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Dorothy Jaffe and David and Louis Slovin.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. in the Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
