PSJ 10-30-88

Milton V. Kessler

PROVIDENCE — Milton V. Kessler of 179 Cole Ave., assistant manager of Floyd's Men's Store, Attleboro, until retiring 20 years ago, died Friday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Tilda (Rotenberg) Kessler.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Barney and Eva (Wagner) Kessler.

Mr. Kessler was previously manger of the former Hotel Canterbury, Boston, for 20 years. For many years, he had been chaplain of the Faternal Order of Police, Pawtucket, receiving its first honorary membership. He was a member of the Henry Friedman B'nai B'rith Lodge and the Jewish Home for the Aged.

Besides his wife he leaves a brother, Marion D. Kessler of Providence.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Congregation Agudas Achim, Toner Boulevard, Attleboro. Burial will be in Attleboro Hebrew Cemetery, Attleboro.

Kessler, Milton V.