RIHER 10-17-91

LEONARD G. KIMBALL

PAWTUCKET — Leonard G. Kimball, 77, of 146 Ridge St., a grocery merchant in New Haven, Conn., for many years before retiring more than 10 years ago, died Sunday, October 13, 1991, at home. He was the husband of Ruth (Strolsky) Kimball.

Born in Lynn, Mass., a son of the late Leon G. and Ethel (Lewis) Kimball, he moved to Pawtucket nine years ago.

Mr. Kimball was a member of Temple Emmanu-El, and its Leisure Club. He was a member of Redwood Lodge 35 AF & AM, the B'nai B'rith, and the Swansea Country Club.

Besides his wife he leaves a sister, Dr. Lorraine Baxter of West Palm Beach, Fla. He was brother of the late Aillen McIlvim.

A graveside service was held Monday, October 14, at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. Arrangements were by the Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence.

KIMBALL, Leonard G.