RIJH 8-20-92

KLIBANOFF, PATRICIA

PATRICIA KLIBANOFF

PROVIDENCE — Patricia Klibanoff, 55, of 297 President Ave., a social worker in the East Greenwich public school system since 1979, died Aug. 13 at Roger Williams Hospital. She was the wife of Allen Klibanoff.

Born in Kansas City, Mo., a daughter of Sylvia (Schultz) Ludwig of Warwick, and the late Leo Ludwig, Jr., she lived in Providence since 1967.

Klibanoff was a 1960 honors graduate of the University of Missouri, Kansas City. She received a master's degree in social work from Boston University in 1966. She was a director of Family Life Education for Family Service from 1975 through 1978. She was a member of the McMillan Commission to Study Services for Children and Families in Rhode Island.

She was a member of the Rhode Island Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers, and was a registered independent clinical social worker. She was a member of the Friday Group.

Besides her husband and mother, she leaves a son, Peter Klibanoff of Boston; a daughter, Kathryn Klibanoff of Washington, D.C.; and two sisters, Dorothy Parales of Auburn, N.H., and Lucy Oxenhandler of Corvallis, Ore.

The funeral service was held Aug. 17 at Swan Point Cemetery Chapel, Blackstone Boulevard. Burial followed. Service was coordinated by Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence.