Funeral Services Are Set For Realtor Killed by Car

A funeral service will be held tomorrow in Providence for Murray Koirth, 63, of 285 Knollwood Ave., Cranston, president of Elmwood Realty, who was killed Tuesday night when he was struck by a car that mounted an Elmwood Avenue sidewalk.

Mr. Koirth was struck within seconds of leaving the Elmwood Liquor Store at 332 Elmwood Ave., of which he was manager.

He was a World War II Army veteran and a member of the Jewish War Veterans.

Born in Providence, and a Cranston resident since 1958, he was a son of Samuel and the late Etta (Cooper) Koirth.

Besides his wife, Carol (Moylan) Koirth, and his father, he is survived by two daughters, Misses Lisa A. and Donna J. Koirth, both of Cranston; three brothers, Charles A. Koirth of Hampton, N. H., Leonard Koirth of Hollywood, Calif., and Irving Koirth of Hays, Kan., and a sister, Mrs. Irene Kaplan of Hollywood, Fla.

After a 1 p.m. service at Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., burial will be in Sinai Memorial Park, Warwick.
