KORET, Hyman

3-15-63 RI Hist

HYMAN KORET

Funeral services for Hyman Koret, 68, of 29 Dennis Street, Cranston, who died March 11, in a hospital in Lynn, Mass, after an illness of one day, were held March 12 at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel.

Mr. Koret, the husband of Anna (Weiss) Koret, was a Providence Constable. He had been visiting his daughter in Swampscott, Mass., at the time of his death. Born in Russia, a son of the late Benzilin and Sofie Koret, he had been a resident of the Greater Providence area for 50 years.

He was a member of the Providence Fraternal Association, the Golden Agers of the Jewish Community Center and Congregation Shaare Zedek.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Dr. Sidney Koret of Rochester, N.Y.; two daughters, Mrs. Harold Book of North Miami, Fla., and Mrs. Melvin Sachs of Swampscott, and eight grandchildren.

Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.