4-10-86

THE EVENING BULLETIN

OBITUARIES

Abraham Korner, 78; Holocaust survivor of Dachau, Buchenwald

PROVIDENCE — Abraham Korner, 78, of 111 Ruggles St., who survived incarceration in two Nazi death camps during World War II, died this morning at Miriam Hospital.

He was born in Austria, a son of the late Solomon and Sabina (Geisinger) Korner.

Mr. Korner was interned at the infamous Dachau and Buchenwald extermination camps where hundreds of thousands of Jews and other minorities were executed.

He later went to Israel, where he lived for 14 years before coming to Providence 25 years ago.

Mr. Korner was employed by Hasbro Industries, Pawtucket, in the shipping department for 25 years before retiring 10 years ago.

He was a member of the Congregation Shaare Zedek Sons of Abraham Synagogue, the Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association, and the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

He leaves two sisters, Mina Korner of Providence and Tina Chernick of Warwick.

The funeral service will be tomorrow at 1 p.m. at the Lincoln Park Cemetery Chapel, Warwick.

KORNER, ABRAHAM