KORTICK, BARBARA (LEVIN)

PJB 2-28-04

Cranston

BARBARA KORTICK, 76, of 470 Meshanticut Valley Parkway, a retired bookkeeper, died Saturday at home.

She was the wife of Douglas Kortick. They had been married for 53 years. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Max and Dora (Gittleman) Levin, she had lived in Cranston for 18 years, and Warwick for 18 years, before returning to Cranston 7 months ago.

Mrs. Kortick had been a bookkeeper at the former Canal Furniture Co., Providence, for 15 years, and later worked at the Argonne Jewelry Co. for 38 years, retiring 6 years ago. After retiring, she worked at the Rhode Island Department of Children, Youth and Families.

She was a graduate of Hope High School, Providence, Class of 1944, and a member of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Mrs. Kortick was a former member of the Providence Hebrew Day School, and its PTA, Temple Beth-El, and the former Temple Beth Israel.

Besides her husband, she leaves a son, Stuart Kortick of North Providence; a daughter, Marilyn Deware of Hope Valley; two brothers, Irwin Levin of Delray Beach, Fla., and Bernard Levin of Providence; and four grandchildren and a great-granddaughter.

The funeral service will be held today at 11 a.m. in Priest Chapel in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. Burial will follow.
