LEONARD R. KORTICK, 77, of 88 Waldron Ave., a self-employed sales representative in the jewelry industry for many years, died yesterday in the Jane Brown building of Rhode Island Hospital.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Max and Bertha (Gordon) Kortick, he lived in Cranston for more than 35 years.

He secured several patents for products that he created for industry. He was a member of the Providence YMCA for many years and also coached running there. He also carried the torch for the annual run from the former Hillsboro Airport to the Jewish Community Center in Providence.

He was a member of the Friends of Police. He was a veteran of World War II.

He leaves three brothers, Bernard Kortick of Cathedral City, Calif., Douglas Kortick of Warwick, and Albert Kortick of Cranston; and a sister, Jacqueline Gregerman of Warwick. He was a brother of the late Josephine Gold.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. at Mt. Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence.

Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Rd., Warwick.
