KOSLOW, HAROLD

90, of Village at Waterman Lake, died Tuesday, June 16, 2015 at the Village. He was the beloved husband of Harriett (Wiesel) Koslow for 70 years. Born in Boston, MA, a son of the late Franklin and Rebecca (Rubin) Koslow, he had lived in Cranston for many years before moving to Greenville over 3 years ago. Harold was the owner of Colonial Pharmacy in Providence for 30 years and was a Hospital Pharmacy Administrator for the State of RI for 20 years. He was a graduate of the University of Massachusetts College of Pharmacy and received his Masters in Pharmacy from the University of Rhode Island. Harold was trained for war by the US Navy at Notre Dame University. He was a WW-II Navy veteran serving in the European Theater and was one of the youngest captains of a ship, at age 19. Harold was a past member of Temple Torat Yisrael and a past president of the Rotary Club. Devoted father of Franklin Koslow and his wife Kathleen of Foster and Linda Gershon and her husband Dr. Michael of Warwick. Dear brother of the late Herbert and Mitchell Koslow. Loving grandfather of Jonathan (Melissa) Gershon, David (Lisa) Gershon, Jesse (Megan) Koslow and Evan Koslow. Cherished great-grandfather of Mia, Ava, Josh and Jake. Funeral services will be held Friday at 10:30 a.m. in SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, 2348 Post Rd., Ste. 202, Warwick, RI 02886 or Home & Hospice Care of RI, 1085 North Main St., Providence, RI 02904. Shiva will be observed at Village at Waterman Lake, 715 Putnam Pike, Greenville, Friday 2-5 and Sunday 1-4 p.m. For online condolences, visit ShalomMemorialChapel.com.
