Louis I. Kramer

KRAMER
Louis I

NORTHAMPTON, Mass. — Louis I. Kramer, 81, of 44 Munroe St., former acting superintendent of schools in Providence, died this morning at the West Boca Medical Center, Boca Raton, Fla., where he had been a winter resident. He was the husband of Miriam (Krieger) Kramer.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Benjamin and Tillie (Zalk) Kramer, Mr. Kramer had lived most of his life in Providence, moving to Northampton a year and a half ago.

He was a 1932 graduate of the University of Rhode Island, earning his master's degree at Rhode Island College. He also did graduate work at Brown and Harvard Universities, and was a member of Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Mr. Kramer served as a Naval officer in the South Pacific during World War II.

He served as acting superintendent of schools in Providence from 1969 until 1972. He had been assistant superintendent of schools in Providence and principal of Mount Pleasant High School.

Mr. Kramer served on Temple Emanu-El's board of directors and was a member of its men's club. He was also on the board of directors at the Solomon Schechter School and belonged to Temple Bnai Israel in Northampton.

Mr. Kramer was vice-president emeritus of the Bureau of Jewish Education of Rhode Island and had been an officer for the Rhode Island Public School Principal's Association.

Besides his wife he leaves a daughter, Barbara Gumpert of Northampton, Mass. and two grandchildren. He was the father of the late Richard S. Kramer.

A funeral service will be held at 11 a.m. on Thursday at Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue at Sessions Street. Burial will be at Lincoln Park Cemetery in Warwick. ✓
