KRASNOW, Harry

September 23, 1979. Residence 315 East Ave., Pawtucket. Beloved husband of the late Ruth (Ross) Krasnow. Funeral services, to which relatives and friends are invited, will be held Monday at 2 p.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. In lieu of flowers, contributions, in his memory, may be made to your favorite chairtiy. Shiva will be private.

Harry Krasnow

PROVIDENCE — Harry Krasnow, 89, of 315 East Ave., Pawtucket, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital after a two-month illness. He was the husband of the late Ruth (Ross) Krasnow.

A 1918 graduate of the Rhode Island School of Design, Mr. Krasnow owned the former Kay Curtains for many years. He retired 14 years ago.

Born in Russia, March 20, 1890, a son of the late Jacob and Miriam (Borodulin) Krasnow, Mr. Krasnow came to this country in 1906 and lived in Providence until he moved to Pawtucket two years ago.

He leaves a brother, Herman Krasnow of Warwick, and a sister, Mrs. Fannie Horvitz of Pawtucket.

A funeral service was to be held today at 2 p.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

KRASNOW, HARRY

KRASNOW, Herman

PGJ 4-30-00

KRASNOW, Herman J.

April 27, 2000. Husband of the late Esther (Moskowvich) Krasnow. Residence: Dawson Ave., Warwick. Funeral private. Inurnment will be in Swan Point Cemetery, Providence. Arrangements by PONTARELLI-MARINO HOME.