KRIEGER, CELIA

Celia Krieger, 93

GREENLAND, N.H. – Celia Krieger died June 7. She was the beloved wife of the late Seymour Krieger. Born in New York City, N.Y., a daughter of the late Abaham and Leah (Gzebnarz) Stupsky, she had lived in Providence since 1953, previously living in Brooklyn, NY.

She was a Hebrew teacher at Temple Sinai for 10 years and Temple Beth-El for 25 years, retiring in 1986. She was a member of Temple Emanu-El, Havurah Kulanu Hadar and the former Pioneer Women, now called Na'Amat. She was the devoted mother of Les Krieger of Jerusalem, Israel, Cantor Wayne Krieger of Freehold, N.J., Rabbi Barry Krieger and the late Dr. Dennis Krieger; sister of the late Sam and Jack Stone; loving grandmother of 10; cherished great-grandmother of 19.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to Na'Amat, 505 8th Avenue, Suite 12A 04, New York, N.Y. 10018-4511 or Temple Emanu-El, 99 Taft Avenue, Providence, R.I. 02906.