KRITZ,
MINNIE (SLAVSKY)

JVH 9-15-2006

Minnie Kritz, 97

WARWICK — Minnie Kritz, 97, died on Sept. 9. Born in Russia, the daughter of the late Isaac and Bessie (Fleiss) Slavsky, she was the wife of the late Morris Kritz. They were married for 56 years.

She lived in Providence, moved to Warwick in 1977, and had resided at Tamarisk Assisted Living for the past three years.

Mrs. Kritz was a life member of Temple Am David, Pioneer Women, and the Womens Auxiliary of the former Rhode Island Jewish Home for the Aged. She was an elections supervisor for over fifty years, an avid card player, and enjoyed cooking, baking, and knitting.

She leaves two sons, Cantor Karl Kritz and his wife Harriet of Long Beach, N.Y. and Miami Beach, Fla., and Dr. Arnold Kritz and his wife Barbara of Bethlehem, Pa.; a brother, Theodore Slavsky of Warwick; six grandchildren; fifteen great-grandchildren, and a special nephew, Ted Katz of Fort Lauderdale, Fla.She was the sister of the late Samuel Slavsky and Bessie Katz.

Contributions may be made to the charity of one's choice.